Trust in Crisis: Organizational and Institutional Trust, Failures and Repair

Special Issue published in Organization Studies 36(9)

Guest Editors (and FINT members) Nicole Gillespie, Reinhard Bachmann and Richard Priem present four articles addressing diverse empirical cases such as the Russian bank deposit market, the UK audit market, the Siemens scandal in Germany, and the Japanese automakers Nissan and Honda. Contributors include: Andrew Spicer, Ilya Okhmatovskiy, Frank Mueller, Chris Carter, Andrea Whittle, Peter Eberl, Daniel Geiger, Michesl S. Aßländer, Merieke Stevens, John Paul MacDuffie, and Susan Helper. Read the Special Issue: <http://oss.sagepub.com/content/36/9.toc>

FINT History: How did this all come about?

Perhaps you know that the First International Network on Trust was founded in Amsterdam in 2001, but do you know/remember what has happened since? Check out this recently extended and updated page on the FINT Website: <http://www.fintweb.org/history>

Interviews with Bart Nooteboom and Bob Hurley in Journal of Trust Research 5(2)

The latest JTR issue features regular articles on trust after violations, the public cost of broken trust, and the epistemologies of trust researchers as well as, for the first time, two interviews with renowned scholars on the theory and practice of trust: Bart Nooteboom (top) and Robert F. Hurley (below). A video of Nooteboom’s interview is on youtube: <http://youtu.be/tlggeWE4bTs>. For text versions and the whole new JTR issue, please see: <http://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rjtr20/5/2>

NEXT ISSUE planned for December 2015. Send your news to:

Call for Book Proposals

New Routledge Series in Trust

Rosalind Searle and Ann-Marie Nienaber invite you to send them ideas for monographs or edited volumes that extend conceptually and empirically our understanding of trust in different high stake contexts. The books will be published by Routledge in a new book series dedicated to trust.

To discuss your ideas or just to find out more, please get in touch:
