NEWS ON TRUST RESEARCH from the First International Network on Trust

FINT VISITS THE USA!

We are excited to announce that the next FINT conference will take place in March 2021 in Charlotte, North Carolina. This is FINT's first visit to the US and reflects our ongoing aim to involve as many international trust scholars in our community as possible.

The conference is very kindly being hosted by Audrey Korsgaard and her team at University of South Carolina. More details to follow soon!

Thank you from FINT

A huge thank you from the whole FINT community to the organisers of FINT 2019 in St. Gallen. We had a fantastic time in Switzerland discussing cutting edge trust research, catching up with colleagues, and (of course) learning to yodel in the Swiss Alps. Antoinette, Simon, Meike and their team did a phenomenal job of conference hosting and we are extremely grateful.

leader for our community since she took over the presidency in 2010. In that time, our community has become a truly global network with almost 800 members from all over the world and conferences in Madrid, Milan, Singapore, Coventry, Dublin, St. Gallen with a regular conference attendance of 100-150. During this period of growth, Antoinette has been careful to protect the inclusive, friendly culture that characterizes FINT and has been so incredibly supportive to many of our research careers. On behalf of the entire FINT community, a huge thank you to Antoinette for all that she has contributed.

At the closing session of the conference, Antoinette Weibel announced her intention to step down as FINT president. Antoinette has been an inspiring and dedicated

FINT Board Updates & Recruitment

New board appointments - we are delighted to announce that Kirsimarja Blomqvist will be joining the FINT board, Kirsimarja is a founding member of the FINT network and has been a generous and highly valued contributor to our community. Book Launch - Managing Trust in Strategic Alliances Managing Trust in Strategic Alliances contains contributions by leading scholars in the field of strategic alliance research. The 10 chapters in this volume deal with significant issues relating to the management of trust in strategic alliances. These issues include the role of trust in value creation and appropriation, the dialectics of trust, control, and risk in multilateral R&D alliances, protecting trustworthiness in open and closed alliance networks, balancing trust and distrust, trust and cost disclosure, trust and control, foreign partner's trust in international strategic alliances, a multilevel approach to trust, trust in service supply networks, and trust-building in public-private strategic alliances. The chapters contain empirical as well as conceptual treatments of the selected topics, and collectively present a wide-ranging review of the noteworthy research perspectives on managing trust in strategic alliances.
