

View this email in your browser

NEWS ON TRUST RESEARCH

from the First International Network on Trust

Let's get excited for FINT 2019!

#gruezfint2019 will be our conference hashtag representing the welcoming and generous Swiss attitude as well as for our trust research community to get even closer. For those of you who can not wait, grüezi [ˈɡryːtsi] is a shortening of "Gott grüez-i" ("God greets you") and is the Zurich, Glarnish and eastern Swiss pronunciation of the same greeting, which reads "grüess-ech" in Bern, Solothurn, southwest Taargau and the upper Basel region. So you can see, you will not survive in Switzerland without knowing this salutation - make sure you can pronounce this properly by January :-).

To make our trust research community even more excited about the 10th anniversary of our FINT conference, we want to highlight two things:

(1) Food for thought

First, we are happy release our final FINT program and, as you will see submissions are of highest quality ready to set the trends for international trust research in the upcoming years. The program is accessible via our conference homepage: <http://www.fint-2019.ch/programm-practical-information> or directly via exOrdo: <https://fint2019.exordo.com/programme/sessions/2019-01-09>

(2) Swiss food for pleasure

Secondly, we want to tune you in for our unique conference dinner and the highlights awaiting you. Imagine a snowy Appenzell Landscape with the sound of Alpine horns welcoming you and putting you in the right mood for a Swiss aperitif, such as Glühbier (a mulled beer with Swiss herbs).

Further, think of a wooden chalet where you will gather for a typical Appenzeller cheese fondue. Of course, it is good tradition to have Schnaps or Alpenbitter alongside the cheese menu or even a glass of the traditional fondue wine, the Chasselas. Click on this link to get an impression of our conference dinner location: <https://www.schaukaeserei.ch/en>

Sounds like a dream? This dream will come true for those of you registered for our FINT2019 conference – stay excited.

The organizing committee cannot wait to welcome all of you in January. Until then, we wish you all the best with your research. Trust us that the FINT2019 edition will live up to the demands of such an important anniversary for the FINT community and trust research.

Recent Papers of Interest

Baer, M. D., Matta, F. K., Kim, J. K., Welsh, D. T., & Garud, N. (2018). It's not you, it's them: Social influences on trust propensity and trust dynamics. Personnel Psychology, 71(3), 423-455.

Baer, M. D., van der Werff, L., Colquitt, J. A., Rodell, J. B., Zipay, K. P., & Buckley, F. (2018). Trusting the "Look and feel": Situational normality, situational aesthetics, and the perceived trustworthiness of organizations. Academy of Management Journal, 61(5), 1718-1740.

Burtscher, M. J., Meyer, B., Jonas, K., Feese, S., & Tröster, G. (2018). A time to trust? the buffering effect of trust and its temporal variations in the context of high-reliability teams. Journal of Organizational Behavior, 39(9), 1099-1112.

Kennedy, J. A., & Schweitzer, M. E. (2018). Building trust by tearing others down: When accusing others of unethical behavior engenders trust. Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes, 149, 111-128.

Long, C. P. (2018). To control and build trust: How managers use organizational controls and trust-building activities to motivate subordinate cooperation. Accounting, Organizations and Society, 70, 69-91.

Nee, V., Holm, H. J., & Opper, S. (2018). Learning to trust: From relational exchange to generalized trust in china. Organization Science, 29(5), 969-986.

Call for Papers

EGOS Subtheme 50 on Dynamics of trust and distrust: temporality, technology and 'truth'

European Group of Organization Studies (EGOS) will be held from July 4–6, 2019 in Edinburgh, United Kingdom.

Short papers (max 3000 words) are due by January 14, 2019.

Further details of the call are available here.

Outstanding post-doctorate opportunity in trust research

The University of Queensland Business School is bringing together passionate researchers and professionals to work together to advance research and transform practice in the areas of organizational trust, ethics and governance.

Shortly we will be recruiting an exceptional Early Career Researcher/PhD graduate in organizational science/psychology/behavior or management to join us in 2019 for up to three years as a post-doctoral research fellow. The Research Fellow will conduct collaborative research in the area of organizational trust, working with Professor Nicole Gillespie who holds the KPMG Chair in Organizational Trust, as well as periodically with staff at KPMG to ensure the applied relevance and translation of the research.

This is an outstanding opportunity for an early career researcher with a track record of academic excellence and experience conducting applied field-based research. The role will particularly suit a researcher who is passionate about enhancing trustworthy, socially responsible organizations, institutions and leaders.

For more information or to register your interest, please email Nicole at n.gillespie1@uq.edu.au

For information about UQ Business School, please visit business.uq.edu.au

Business School

Journal of Trust Research New Issue

To access the latest issue of the JTR check out:

<https://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rjtr2/0/8/2?nav=tocList>

This issue contains six articles exploring multilevel trust research including an editorial from Ashley Fulmer and Kurt Dirks as well as papers from FINT members Audrey Korsgaard, Sari-Johanna Karhapää, Taina Inkeri Savolainen, and Fabrice Lumineau among others. Thanks for reading, recommending, citing, supporting us and we are looking forward to your own submissions!

Guido Mollering
Editor in Chief

The Trust Project at Northwestern University

Looking for a quick way to learn about trust research done by academics in unfamiliar disciplines? The Trust Project at Northwestern features videos that summarize the perspectives of academic disciplines, including philosophy, sociology, and economics. The project also includes videos from business leaders discussing trust challenges they have faced. To encourage cross-disciplinary thinking about trust, the project's videos include links that encourage viewers to make connections between different videos. The project posts a new trust video each month, which it announces to its subscribers. A recent video from FINT board member Cecily Cooper can be viewed here.

The Trust Project's home page and further details can be found here.

Very best wishes from the FINT Board - we look forward to seeing you in January!

Antoinette Weibel (President)
Guido Mollering
Sandro Castaldo
Cecily Cooper
Mark Saunders
Lisa van der Werff

Please join the FINT LinkedIn Group to stay involved in FINT's ongoing discussions and announcements: <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/4824312>

Send your content for the next issue of FINT news to lisa.vanderwerff@dcu.ie

Copyright © 2018 FINT, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

